Decision Summary NMCAC July 11-12, 2019

Welcome/introductions

General Education Applications:

Will be reviewed at July NMCAC meeting
Status	App #	HEI	Prefix	Number	Name	Area
Revise & Resubmit	312	CCC	ARTS	1610	Drawing I	Narratives should discuss what activities students do throughout the course to develop the essential skills and how they will be assessed. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s).
Revise & Resubmit	367	NMMI	CJUS	1110	Introduction to Criminal Justice	Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills.
Revise & Resubmit	372	NMMI	HIST	2145	American Military History	Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s).
Revise & Resubmit	546	NTU	COMM	2120	Interpersonal Communication	For Communication, the narrative seemed to be describing the basics of the subject rather than student activities. Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s).
Revise & Resubmit	550	NTU	ENVS	1110 and 1110 L	Environmental Science I Laboratory	For Communication, the narrative seemed to be describing the basics of the subject rather than student activities. Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s).

Revise & Resubmit	551	NTU	ENVS	1120	Environmental Science II and Environmental Science II Laboratory	Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s). Quantitative reasoning was identified as being covered in prerequisite courses rather than this course; however, each essential skill must be developed in the course being proposed to be part of the general education curriculum.
Revise & Resubmit	554	NTU	MATH	1240	Pre-Calculus	The narratives do not adequately address the component skills. Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s).
Revise & Resubmit	560	NTU	BIOL	1310 C	Introduction to Human Anatomy and Physiology I Lecture and Laboratory	Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s). The rubric given does not seem to be appropriate to assess the assignment given. The phrases "students learn" and "students understand" need to be replaced with an explanation of the activities that will lead to that understanding.
Revise & Resubmit	562	NMSU	HNRS	2115	Encounters with Art	Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s).
	566	NTU	NA	NA	NA	The NMCAC requests that you hold on this application to allow it time to decide if it will accept Intro to Computers courses into the gen ed curriculum. Each narrative must address the required number of components skills and discuss how each is developed throughout the course. Narratives should focus on the activities that student do to develop the essential skills. The assessment provided should assess at least one essential skill and be mentioned in the corresponding narrative(s). Too much reliance on phrases such as "Students learn", "Students are made aware of..", and Students are taught", without enough explanation of student activities. What are student required (not "encouraged to") do?
